

HR health check Report

Legal Compliance

Compliance involves not only knowing and understanding the legislation that applies to the organization, but also being able to demonstrate that the business and its entities are in compliance at all times.??Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Hours of Work and Leave

Balanced working time arrangements (WTAs) can benefit firms in many ways including:

- 1.increased productivity;
 - 2.reduced rates of absenteeism and staff turnovers;
 - 3.improved employee attitudes and morale;
 - 4.more sustainable enterprises.
- Your business has done a good job, please maintenance it.

Policies & Practices

Policies need to be provided and explained to new and existing employees for it to be effective.Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Employee Relations

Companies with good employee relationships enjoy many benefits. In general, it is easier for them to engage, motivate, understand and keep their employees. Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Performance Management

Continuous performance management enables management to identify activity and efforts worthy of praise or reward. You have done a good job, just maintain it.

Training and Development

Managing a successful organizational change can increase morale among workers and drive positive team building and job enrichment. These factors can directly and positively affect productivity and quality of work while shortening production cycles and reducing costs. Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Recruitment & Retention

Your HR team should be careful to consider what will go furthest to retain employees, especially in regards to your compensation plan. Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Change and Reorganisation

Managing a successful organizational change can increase morale among workers and drive positive team building and job enrichment. These factors can directly and positively affect productivity and quality of work while shortening production cycles and reducing costs. Your business has done a good job, just maintenance it.

Pay and Benefits

Employee Communication & Engagement

Health and Safety

Covid Related

Employee Records and GDPR

